

Let's start with German - Lesson 2

Wie geht es Ihnen? (How are you?)

Es geht mir gut, danke. (I am fine, thank you.)

- The German word for how is wie
Imagine how you make the V in Vienna.
- The German word for to go is gehen
Imagine a gay hen going very fast.
- The German word for it is es
Imagine speaking italian and español.
- The German word for to you is Ihnen
Imagine asking: Hey Mister, you are going to the inner city, are you sure?
- The German word for to me is mir
Imagine Mia bringing the drink to me.
- The German word for good is gut
Imagine a good gut feeling with this new friend.
- The German word for thank you is danke
Imagine saying thank you to a donkey.

Entschuldigung, können Sie das bitte wiederholen? (Sorry, can you repeat please?)

- The German word for can is können
Imagine how Conan the Barbarian can kick your ass.
- The German word for to bring is holen
Imagine to bring home the cup after a hole-in-one.

- The German word for again is wieder
Imagine eating again and again and getting wider and wider.
- The German word for repeat is wiederholen
- The German word for sorry is Entschuldigung
Imagine saying: You should say sorry to him and should dig on another hill.
- The German word for that is das
Imagine thinking that dust is thick.
- The German word for please is bitte
Imagine ordering: A bitter bear please.

Ich verstehe nur Bahnhof. (It's all Greek to me.)

Können wir auf Englisch weiterreden. (Can we continue speaking in English.)

- The German word for understand is verstehen
Imagine they were staying in school to understand more German.
- The German word for only is nur
Imagine thinking if only I knew her.
- The German word for station is Bahnhof
Imagine a ban of smoking in all stations.
- The German word for speak is reden
Imagine speaking about the red end of the spektrum.
- The German word for continue is weiter
Imagine a writer continue writing and writing.
- The German word for continue speaking is weiterreden
- The German word for we is wir
Imagine we are all together a big family.

- The German word for in is auf
Imagine explaining that in and on is the opposite of out and off.

Wie bitte? (How please?)